Year completed: 2004

Furniture:
open up, open mind

An extension building was added on to the head office of Gelsenwasser AG in Gelsenkirchen. Creating an impression of a pioneering spirit in the area of energy conception as well as presenting an elegant image were important criteria for the new transparent building.

A modern and aesthetic design for the offices as well as individually controllable sunblinds composed of slats ensure a pleasing atmosphere for the employees who work in the building.
